sonia o sullivan is one of the greatest sporting figures ireland has ever produced in a career which saw her competing at the highest international levels for over a decade she turned in world class times in events ranging from the 1 500 metres to the marathon capped by world championship gold in the 5 000 metres in 1995 and olympic silver in the same event in 2000 but her performances on the track are only part of the story of this passionate sometimes fragile and always compelling athlete now sonia tells the full story of her life for the first time from her childhood in cobh co cork through her early successes on the track to the highs of 1995 and 2000 and the low of the 1996 olympics whether in triumph or in tears sonia has always been a uniquely fascinating and mysterious figure this frank autobiography takes us behind the scenes of international athletics and behind the mask of a brilliant vulnerable sportswoman as a story of dedication and perseverance finally rewarded it s inspirational sunday business post a cocktail of thrills spills heartache near things personal tumult and devastation this is a book written from the heart irish catholic the candid nature of the book alone makes it a must read for any irish sports buff belfast news letter bones of home and other plays weaves the splendor and decay of new orleans with its past and present and then spirals out from its new orleans center like delicate threads of a web this collection of plays brings a broad range of writing styles with contemporary and historical plays the contemporary plays spring forth from the questions of our times how does the downward economy change family dynamics how can uncontrollable crime bring people together how does our penchant for youth at all costs influence friendships how can a lonely soul find strength within the historic plays complicated by louisiana lore offer a look at what remains the same and what has changed through the years the historic plays resonate with struggles we continue to confront today amid themes of race gender and power donaghy embraces her characters lives complicated by choices between disparate worlds with care and a hunger to explore her characters choices are about good and evil hope and loss faith and doubt and often involve a search for the meaning of home the stepmother s role often is ambiguous and underappreciated and frequently it carries unrealistic expectations the book answers women s concerns and questions including how can i be a caretaker and a key emotional connector in the family if the children don t accept my influence how should i cope with children who are confused about their family and torn between loyalty to their biological mother and me when should i step back in conflicts and when should i insist that my husband stand up for me in addition it addresses the spiritual and emotional climate of the home providing perspective and guidelines to help stepmothers and their families thrive

a sleep deprivation bet careens out of control when a group of friends get together over spring break one seasoned reporter caught by chance in this maelstrom attempts making sense of the carnage though entirely out of his realm while beginning as a lighthearted lark what he encounters eventually finds him ruminating on our current worldwide climate and its parallels to this insane odyssey
